Claims 1-45 are cancelled.

Claims 46-119 are pending in this application.

Claims 93-119 are drawn to non-elected invention.

Objection

Claims 46-92 and 119 are objected to for containing non-elected subject matter. To place the application in condition for allowance, applicant must amend the claims as set forth under Status of Claims in the last Office action.

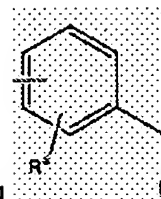

Rejoinder

Claims 93-118 would be rejoined following allowability of claims 46-92 and 119 provided there is no problems under 35 USC 112.

Applicant's arguments filed 5/17/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant contends that election of species became a restriction, and restriction between groups I and II was not in the restriction requirement. This is not persuasive for reasons set forth in the restriction requirement with particular reference to pages 2-3. Applicant reliance on the MPEP 802.03 may be the problem here since there is no such section in the MPEP. The related section of the MPEP is 803.02, to which applicant's attention was directed in the last Office action but apparently ignored.

Claims 46-52 and 84 are not proper Markush Claims under the MPEP 803.02 because the formulae in the claims are not substantial structural feature, and the specification fails to disclose any utility attributable to the formulae.

The common structure in each of claims 46-52 and 84 is the following . This does not constitute a substantial structural feature under the meaning of the MPEP 803.02. The specification fails to disclose any utility arising from the formula and is not searchable. Any attempt to search it would run the computer out of memory. Hence, the restriction. Applicant was invited to develop this formula to the point it can be searched and if found novel would obviate the need for further restriction. See the restriction requirement at page 4. Applicant fails to avail him/herself of the invitation. MPEP 803.02 states that if an elected species is found novel, additional species must be searched but such would not be "extended unnecessarily to cover all non-elected species." Therefore, Applicant should consult this section of the MPEP. Should applicant need help in interpreting this section the Examiner may be contacted for assistance. Applicant should note that all the variables in the formulae of claims 46-52 and 84 do not count as part of the substantial structural feature under the meaning of the MPEP 803.02 because what is required is "a" substantial structure not substantial structure"s". For example, the variable Ra in the above formula does not count.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 1626

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
